What is Agile?

Covered in this lecture:

Explaining the Agile framework

► Agile is a way of applying the lean mindset to software development

● In the Agile framework, we group things into small batches and do them one by one, in order to not waste resources

Example: Researching the most important 2-5 features of a product instead of developing all of them

See you next lecture!